

Podium place for Tinto Way with Jan Kocher, in Avenches, July 3rd 2015.

Three weeks ago the nephew of Urs Aeschbacher, Jan Kocher, has passed his license exam as an amateur driver. In his second race, Jan was placed third with the 8-year old gelding Tinto Way in a race over the mile for horses with life time earnings between CHF 50'000 and 100'000. Jan Kocher represents the third generation of the Aeschbacher family in equestrian sport.

above: Jan Kocher with Tinto Way in Avenches, Foto Scarlett Schär

The chestnut Tinto Way is with his 8 years of age an experienced horse and fits ideally for a young driver as Jan. Tinto Way raced so far 73 times with a total of 7 wins and 38 places and total earnings of CHF 63'000.-.