

First win for Jan Kocher with Tinto Way, Avenches, July 22nd 2015.

Running for the third time, the 18-year old Jan Kocher wins his first race with the 8-year old gelding Tinto Way. Jan Kocher, a nephew of Urs Aeschbacher, represents the third generation of the Aeschbacher family in equestrian sport.

above: Jan Kocher with Tinto Way wins in the Prix Café des Alpes, Château-d'Oex, Foto Scarlett Schär

Coming from 4th position with an impressive speed, Tinto Way wins by photo finish in front of Bella Vita. Bella Vita was disqualified later on because of incorrect movements. Therefore stable mate Star Rose became second placed and Christoph Vulliamy, trainer of Tinto Way and Star Rose, could left: Jan Kocher and Tinto Way at the winning ceremony. If the bottle of Champagne is the right gift for the 18-year old amateur driver? Later on Jan handed over the Champagne to Paul Laciga (first from left), the breeder of Tinto Way. Foto Scarlett Schär